CONCERNS OF THE DISTRICT

Eckington and S. H. Railway Cannot Use Cobble-stones on Sixth Street.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS NAMED

In Honor of Presidents Buchanan and Johnson Charges Against Policeman Pearson Referred to Supt. Moore -Street Obstructions to Be Investigated.

Under an act approved June 11, 1878, providing for a permanent form of government for the District, section 2, street rallways, after conforming to established grades, are entitled to "use such cobble stones or Beigian blocks for paving their tracks or the space between their tracks as the Commissioners may

When the Eckington and Soldiers' Home When the Eckington and Soldiers' Home Ballway Company applied for permit for constructing its northeast connection this provision as to the use of cobble stone was admitted in their favor, and later when the same company desired to cross Pennsylvania avenue, the same privilege was claimed.

The Commissioners did not desire cobble to be used, however, and required the company to employ block asphalt, sheet asphalt, or vitrifled brick. The latest expression from the Commissioners is in the permit issued October 50, authorizing the laying of the Eckington and Soldiers' Home tracks on Sixth street, between Louisiana avenue and the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, provided that all of

FATHER NEPTUNE'S TEMPLE.

Washington Steamboat Men Elated Over Their New Hendquarters on the River. The active steamboat men of Washington will soon be in possession of their own handsome headquarters building.

A force of workmen is now engaged in completing the inside work of Neptune Temple, a handsome pressed-brick front structure, No. 1250 Seventh street southwest, opposite the office of Harbormaster Sutton, on the river front. The structure was erected jointly by Washington Harbor, No. 1, of the Ameri-can Association of Master Pilots, and the Ma-rine Engineers' Beneficial Association, No. 23. The lower floor is a commedious storeroom, while above will be a large meeting hall and sitting-rooms.

The tempie will be ready for occupancy by December 1, and the occasion will be celebrated by a "house-warming," given in that cordial manner which is so characteristic of the bard occasion. cordial manner which is so characteristic of the biuff sons of old Father Neptune. Hand-some furniture, fixtures, and decorations for the temple bare been presented to the above organizations by several of the Washington steamboat companies and managers. There has long been felt the need here of such an institution as the temple will be, and its pro-jectors are in a happy frame of mind over the nearness of its completion.

ANACOSTIA NEWS.

W. N. Freeman has begun the erection of a small frame dwelling on Hamilton road near Good Hope.

Miss Millie Peck, daughter of W. H. Peck, is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Thomas Griffith was reported in a critical condition Friday night.

The horse attached to the wagon of R. W. Blair, a baker, took fright on the Anacostia bridge about noon Friday and ran away. A collision with a country team resulted, with considerable damage to both wagons. considerable damage to both wagons.

The local liquor men are somewhat nervous about the prospect of obtaining licenses for the coming year. Several weeks ago the local churches and temperance organizations passed emphatic resolutions declaring war on all liquor selling in Anacostis, wholesale or retail, legitimate and illegitimate. The liquor men, who are used to this sort of thing every year, treated the matter with indifference, but it now appears that the influence against license is more potent than over.
